SUMMER 2022

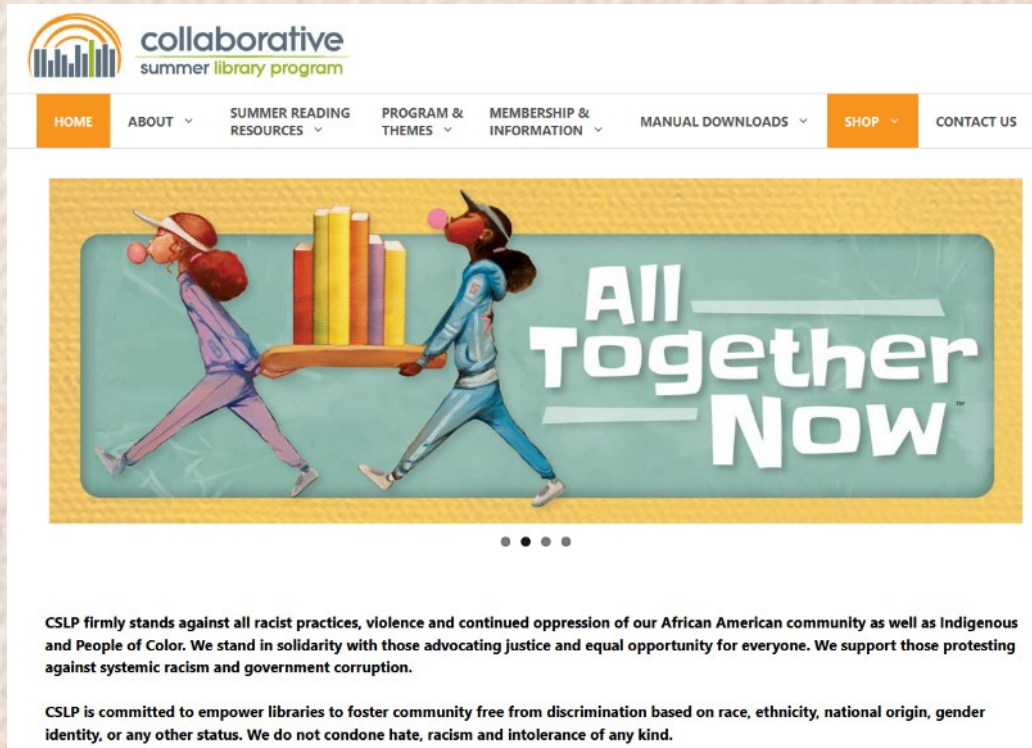

"We felt like we were back up to pre-COVID hustle. We had a great and busy summer!!"

"It has been a summer of increases—in amount of registration, participation, programming, attendance, foot traffic, joy, and more!"

COLLABORATIVE SUMMER LIBRARY PROGRAM

The screenshot shows the website's header with the logo and navigation menu. The main banner features two children carrying a tray of books with the text "All Together Now". Below the banner is a statement of support for the African American community and a commitment to diversity.

All Together Now

CSLP firmly stands against all racist practices, violence and continued oppression of our African American community as well as Indigenous and People of Color. We stand in solidarity with those advocating justice and equal opportunity for everyone. We support those protesting against systemic racism and government corruption.

CSLP is committed to empower libraries to foster community free from discrimination based on race, ethnicity, national origin, gender identity, or any other status. We do not condone hate, racism and intolerance of any kind.

Children and teens who participate in summer library programs benefit from engaging activities and opportunities which promote literacy development and can help to counter summer slide. Summer library programs for all ages enhance lifelong learning and provide meaningful, enjoyable experiences available to everyone in the community. The State Library is proud to support libraries in this endeavor.

Find information here about the 2023 "All Together Now" Collaborative Summer Library Program theme and materials, statewide summer library program (SLP) incentives and workshops, and a variety of SLP ideas, learning opportunities, and resources.

Theme

The 2023 CSLP program theme is Kindness/Friendship/Unity, and the slogan for all ages is "All Together Now," with artwork by Frank Morrison. Gather your community for an inspiring 2023 SLP using the resources on this site and your CSLP program manual, available at no cost to every Ohio public library. Happy planning!
